[MISSING MAN ROGER YAEGER
EAGLE RIVER WISCONSIN](#)

Alaska State Troopers are asking for help in locating a Wisconsin man who traveled to Alaska to view wildlife last summer and hasn't been heard from since August.

Family members said they last heard from 72-year-old Roger H. Yaeger around Aug. 8 in Wasilla. He told family members he was planning to travel around Alaska and would update his family on his travels around Christmas.

Family members contacted troopers a few weeks ago, saying Yaeger had not returned emails for an extended period of time. Troopers were able to trace his travels to Aug. 8, when Yaeger visited a family member in Wasilla before traveling to Fairbanks, where he turned in his rental car Aug. 9 or 10, troopers said.

That's where Yaeger's trail ends. There is no record of him flying in or out of Alaska. Anyone who has seen Yaeger since August or has information about his whereabouts please call troopers in Fairbanks at (907) 451-5100.
